

City News In Brief

(From Thursday's Daily)

From Humboldt

George Davis, well known resident of Humboldt, drove to the city yesterday for a short stay on business.

From the East

E. Moorhead of Minneapolis and J. T. Herrigan of St. Paul are passing a few days in Prescott.

Goes on Hunt

Warren Stone of this city has gone to Congress Junction to hunt quail for a week.

Home for Holidays

Miss Genevieve McNally is expected to arrive today from Tempe, where she is attending the state normal school, to pass the Christmas holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. McNally.

Home for Xmas

Paul Plummer has returned from Tucson, where he is attending the University of Arizona, to spend the Christmas holidays at home.

From the University

Mary Ruth Payne arrived yesterday from Tucson, returning from the University of Arizona, to be at home during the Christmas holidays.

Back for Xmas

Joe McNally, who is in his freshman year at the University of Arizona, is expected to arrive from Tucson today to pass Christmas at home.

In on Business

John T. Keegan, mining man who is operating in the Walker district, was in the city on business yesterday.

Has New Car

H. G. Fansler, manager of the Clarkdale and Jerome district for the Prescott music store, has purchased a new Buick roadster.

From the Coast

Charles F. Gilroy, traveling auditor for the Santa Fe coast lines, is in the city on business at the local office. He is accompanied by his wife.

In on Business

D. O. Saunders drove over from Clarkdale yesterday to attend to some business. Saunders is assistant manager of the Clarkdale branch of the Bank of Arizona.

Ranchers Here

H. A. Miller and Marion White, ranchers of the Williamson valley, drove to Prescott yesterday to attend to some legal business.

Returns from South

C. U. Pickrell, county agricultural agent, has returned from attending the meeting of the livestock section of the Arizona Industrial congress at Phoenix.

Expected Today

Tony Johns was expected to return last night or today from Phoenix, where he attended the annual meeting of the Arizona Industrial congress.

Back After Vacation

Mrs. L. B. Morsehead, deputy in the county assessor's office, has returned from Phoenix, where she has been enjoying a vacation during the past week, visiting friends at the capital.

Deputy Recorder

Miss Esther Swartz has been appointed a deputy in the county recorder's office, succeeding P. J. McNulty, who has accepted a position with the Santa Fe at Wickenburg.

Returns to Jerome

Robert E. Tally, general manager of the United Verde, yesterday returned to his home in Jerome, after a short visit on his way back from attending the annual meeting of the Arizona Industrial congress at Phoenix.

Returns to South

Concluding a short stay in Humboldt, Dr. J. H. Heald of El Paso, yesterday passed through Prescott en route to Phoenix and Tucson. Dr. Heald is superintendent of the southern district of the Congregational church.

Comes to Office

Coming in from his home in the Walnut Creek district of the Prescott forest, Ed Oldham, ranger in charge of that district, will be here for several days attending to some detail work at the local forest service office.

Back from South

Returning last night from Phoenix, Supervisors W. W. Midgley and L. S. Colwell, and R. E. Donovan, clerk of the board, have completed their equipment, and this morning will be trip to the capital to purchase county among those attending the meeting of the Hassayampa road committee of the chamber of commerce.

Attend Meeting

J. E. Wagner of Jerome and C. P. Mullen of Hillside, members of the county highway commission, are expected to come to Prescott today to attend the meeting of the chamber of commerce committee which will consider effective means of helping to bring about completion of the Hassayampa road.

Expected Today

Joseph McCarthy, county highway engineer, is expected to come to Prescott today from his home in Jerome to attend the chamber of commerce committee meeting this morning.

Back from South

R. E. Moore, chairman of the highway commission, returned yesterday from Phoenix, where he went on business a day or two ago, and will be in the city today to attend the meeting of the Hassayampa road committee of the chamber of commerce.

Adjusts Insurance

Insurance adjustment of the recent fire which destroyed the auditorium of the Clarkdale High school, will be made by K. W. Withers of Phoenix, who arrived in Prescott Tuesday and left for Clarkdale yesterday.

(From Friday's Daily)

Goes to Coast

R. H. Burmister, senior member of the real estate firm of Burmister & Hill, yesterday left for San Francisco to pass the holidays with friends.

Home for Holidays

Among those returning to pass the Christmas holidays at home in Prescott are the Misses Mollie Merritt, Vera Jackson and Mary Cromwell, all of whom are attending the University of Arizona.

Home for Christmas

Miss Louise Howard has returned from Tucson to pass the Christmas holidays at home. Miss Howard will have as her guest during the Christmas season, Miss Marjorie Shrum, who is also a student at the university.

From Swansea

Frank Hood, formerly in charge of the Arizona Power company's commissary department, is passing a day or two in Prescott from his home at Swansea, where he is now chief clerk of the Swansea mine for the Southwest Metals company. The Swansea is shipping some ore to the smelter at Humboldt, Hood said yesterday.

To Visit Parents

The Misses Margaret Watson and Dorothy Stuart returned yesterday noon from Tucson to pass the Christmas holidays at home.

Returns Sunday

T. G. Norris is expected to return Sunday from Chicago, where he has been recently on legal business.

To Visit Friends

The Misses Delia and Sue Moore of Winslow are visiting friends in Camp Verde.

Returns from University

Joe McNally, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. McNally, yesterday returned from the University of Arizona, to pass the holidays at home.

Has Rheumatism

Deputy Sheriff Bill Fitzgerald yesterday was confined at home, suffering with rheumatism.

Holiday Vacation

Dixon Fagerberg, Jr., is home from the Page Military Academy at Los Angeles, to spend the holidays.

From the Junction

Mrs. A. O. Despain drove to Prescott yesterday from her home at Jerome Junction, to pass the day in town.

Holiday Vacation

Mrs. Marie Vance Ryland of the Ryland Piano Studio, left today for a holiday vacation and will return to Prescott the middle of January.

Returns from South

C. E. Gentry has returned from Phoenix, where he attended a meeting of Arizona's county assessors.

Goes to Phoenix

Ben Harmon, well known cattleman of the Camp Wood country, is passing a few days at the capital on business.

Express Business

W. S. Seidel, traveling auditor of the American Express company, is here on business at the local express office, of which O. H. Tucker is manager.

On Legal Business

Judge A. K. Lee, justice of the peace at Humboldt, was in the city yesterday on legal business.

Home for Holidays

Charles Suder, Jr., has returned from Tucson, where he is attending the University of Arizona, to spend the holidays at home.

Home from Tempe

Miss Genevieve McNally has returned from Tempe to pass the Christmas holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. McNally. Miss McNally is attending the state normal school.

Back from South

William Brown and Mike Larkin, ex-service men of this city, have returned from Wickenburg, where they have been staying recently.

From the Verde

Driving over from their homes in Camp Verde, Henry See and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cummings are making a short visit to Prescott.

Leave for Holidays

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Orthel and their daughters, the Misses Margaret and Katherine, plan to leave for Phoenix today to pass the holidays with Mrs. Orthel's sister.

Claim Business

A. C. McQueen, livestock claim agent for the Santa Fe, is passing a few days in the city on business for the road.

Goes to Coast

George Kingdon, general manager of the United Verde Extension, has gone to Los Angeles on a business trip. Mr. Kingdon's home is in Jerome.

Back from California

Richard Ebbs has returned from California, where he has been passing some time lately, and is again at Whipple Barracks.

Returns to Coast

Thomas H. Collins of the Calumet & Arizona and the Verde Central mining companies, yesterday left for Pasadena after a stay of several days in Prescott and at the mine, to join his family in their winter home.

Inspects V. C.

Ed Collins, prominent mining engineer of Duluth, Minn., has arrived to visit the Verde Central mine in Jerome. Going over the mine yesterday, he will return today and leave for his home in the east.

From Clarkdale

R. K. Duffy and Grant Dunlap came over from Clarkdale yesterday to attend the meeting of the chamber of commerce's special committee on the Hassayampa road.

From Jerome

R. E. Moore, chairman of the county highway commission, and H. DeWitt Smith, both of Jerome, were among those at the meeting of the Hassayampa roads committee of the chamber of commerce yesterday.

From Ash Fork

Charles E. Burton, prominent land owner and resident of Ash Fork, came down from the main-line junction yesterday to attend the roads meeting at the chamber of commerce.

Home for Holidays

Among Prescott young folk who have returned to pass the Christmas holidays at home are Miss Anita Weil, Miss Jimmie Jackson, Max and Earl Escher, Harold Block and Ernest Born.

Goes to Flagstaff

Miss Ethel Compton, who teaches the county school at Bumblebee, is in the city yesterday, on her way to her home at Flagstaff, where she will pass the Christmas holidays.

Here to Shop

Mr. and Mrs. W. Jeff Martin and family came in to town yesterday from their home at Canon, where Mr. Martin is engaged in the merchandising business, to visit friends and do some buying for Christmas.

From the North

Frank R. Goodman, state engineer-elect, was in the city yesterday on his way to the capital from his home in Flagstaff, to attend a meeting of the special roads committee of the chamber of commerce.

Goes to Coast

M. B. Hazeltine, president of the Yavapai County Savings bank, yesterday left for California, to pass the Christmas holidays with his family, driving over to the coast with his sons, Jack and Sherman. Mrs. Hazeltine left on the train for southern California, where their other son, Bonnell, a student at Stanford, will meet his parents.

Go to California

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shea and Heyward Gibbs, Jr., have gone to California. The Sheas will pass the holidays with relatives in Fresno, while Mr. Gibbs will visit in La Jolla.

(From Saturday's Daily)

From the Junction

Carl Reese, well known rancher of Jerome Junction, drove to Prescott yesterday to do some buying.

Noted Singer Here

Helen Boyle Haworth, noted mezzo soprano, arrived in Prescott last evening, coming to appear with the St. Nick's entertainers, at the Elks theater tonight. She will be the guest of Lester Ruffner during her short visit.

Holiday Guest

Miss Bessie M. De Dell arrived yesterday from Los Angeles to be the guest of Mrs. M. L. Baldwin of Mt. Vernon street.

Sheepman Here

Fletcher Bly of the Yeager & Bly sheep outfit whose ranges are in the Bald Hill district to the south, was in the city yesterday on business at the forest service office.

South for Xmas

Mrs. Edward A. Kastner and her daughter, Miss Betty, will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. T. E. Lett at Tucson.

Visits Daughter

Mrs. Ross of Kingman arrived yesterday from the north to spend Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. L. J. Hasfield, of Kirkland. She was met in Prescott by Mr. and Mrs. Hasfield, who accompanied her to Kirkland.

In from Ranch

Granville Fain arrived in town Thursday from the S. & H. ranch, and is spending a few days here on ranch business.

Buy Supplies

Driving in from his ranch near Walnut Grove, S. A. D. Jackson passed yesterday in town to buy some supplies for the ranch.

On Shopping Trip

Mrs. W. H. Cordes drove in yesterday from her home at Walnut Creek, to do some Christmas market-ing.

From the North

Miss E. Eckel of Flagstaff is among visitors in Prescott. She arrived from the main-line Thursday, registering at the Prescott hotel.

Returns from South

Chester Hoatson, foreman at the Verde Central mine, has returned from a short visit in the southern part of the state.

Here on Business

O. H. Mitchell came up from his home in Phoenix Thursday and was here yesterday to transact business.

Goes to Flagstaff

Miss Ethel M. Compton, who came in to town Thursday from Bumblebee, where she teaches the county school, left yesterday for Flagstaff to spend Christmas at home.

From the Coast

L. McKinnon and C. M. Larsen, business men of Los Angeles, were in the city yesterday, having arrived from the coast on business Thursday.

Here on Visit

Bill West, Yavapai cowboy, is spending a few days in the city. He came in on Thursday and is staying at the Prescott hotel.

In from Ranch

J. L. Sessions, son of Charles Sessions of Cherry Creek, is spending a few days in Prescott to transact some business.

Return from North

Ray Vyne and John Bowen of Vyne Brothers Electric company, returned yesterday from Ash Fork, where they have been working on Vyne Brothers' contract to wire the new school.

Does Good Business

Wm. A. Davidson returned yesterday from Phoenix, where he went several days ago to attend the Arizona Industrial congress meeting. While in Phoenix, Davidson reports, he did a good business for the life insurance company he represents.

Goes to Phoenix

Mrs. Walter Jones of the Arizona Power company's office, has gone to Phoenix for the Christmas holidays.

Xmas on Coast

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Peacock of Tapco, where Mr. Peacock is in charge of the Arizona Power company's station, yesterday went to Los Angeles to spend Christmas with relatives and friends.

Xmas with Family

A. B. Colwell, well known mining engineer of Jerome, was in the city yesterday on his way to Los Angeles, leaving on the afternoon train, to spend Christmas with his family.

To Locate Here

G. H. Graves of Winslow has been appointed assistant time-keeper at the local Santa Fe office, and will resume his new duties on the first of the year. Arriving in Prescott yesterday, he has rented a house and will move his family here.

Holiday Vacation

W. F. Staunton, president of the Verde Central Mining company, was in the city yesterday on his way from the mine at Jerome, where he has been for some time recently, to Los Angeles, where he will spend Christmas with his family.

Here on Business

F. A. Reid of the Reid-Cashion Land & Cattle company, came to Prescott Thursday to pass a day or two in the city on business for the company. While here he transacted business at the forest service office.

Entertainers Arrive

Among the arrivals in Prescott on yesterday morning's train were Mademoiselle Andrea, Victor Clinebly, Grace Vanskow, Princess Tewa, Alverda Mayce, all members of St. Nick's entertainers, and their secretary. During their short stay in Prescott they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ruffner.

Helps Fund

Through the courtesy of the Merritt Transfer Company a special piano will be moved to the Elks theater today to be used in the vaudeville and concert numbers to be given at the Elks theater this evening. "This service we are glad to give as a small help towards the Christmas tree fund," said Mr. Merritt.

Injures Foot

While in the east with his mother, Mrs. F. W. Dryden of Turkey Creek, who has been undergoing treatment at Mayo Brothers sanitarium at Rochester, Minn., young Charles Dryden accidentally shot himself in the foot, it was learned yesterday upon the return of Mrs. Dryden and the boy. Fortunately, the injury proved not to be serious. Mrs. Dryden and Charles were met here Thursday by Mr. Dryden, who drove in from the ranch to take them home.

Holiday at Home

A. F. Hunt, assistant superintendent of the Albuquerque division of the Santa Fe coast lines, with jurisdiction over the local line, yesterday departed for his home at Burlingame, near San Francisco, to spend Christmas with his family. Recently promoted to the Prescott superintendency, Mr. Hunt plans to bring his family to this city after the first of the year.

Mining Man Here

Fred Gronlund, mining man of Veneta, passed yesterday in Prescott on business.

Coast Attorney

T. C. Job, attorney of Los Angeles, is in the city to attend to some legal business. He arrived Thursday.

From Skull Valley

T. L. Morris, well known rancher of Skull Valley, passed yesterday in the city on business.

(From Sunday's Daily)

To Visit Parents

Wallace B. Perry arrived yesterday from his home in Phoenix, to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Perry. Mr. and Mrs. Allan K. Perry will arrive today from Tempe for Christmas.

Goes to Winslow

Mrs. H. L. Haskell will leave for Winslow today to spend Christmas with Mr. Haskell, who was recently transferred to the Winslow dispatcher's office of the Santa Fe.

Install Officers

Frank G. Brown yesterday went to Jerome to install officers of the Jerome Royal Arch Masons. Mr. Brown is high priest of the grand chapter of Arizona, Royal Arch Masons, and past grand master of the blue lodges in Arizona.

Goes to Jerome

County Treasurer Frank E. Smith yesterday went over to Jerome on official business.

Expected Today

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. McLane are expected to arrive today from Kingman, to pass Christmas here with Mr. McLane's parents, Judge and Mrs. Charles H. McLane. Mr. McLane is practicing law in Kingman with Charles Herndon.

Home for Xmas

Miss Alma Tabler has arrived from Red Rock, where she teaches the county school, to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tabler, of Summit street.

Humboldt Visitor

Robert White of the county highway forces, came in from the road camp near Humboldt yesterday.

From Mayer

Miss Alice Conant, who is teaching at the Mayer school, came to Prescott yesterday to shop and visit relatives.

Mayer Visitor

Frank Wilson, proprietor of the Mayer pool hall, was in the city yesterday to transact some business.

From Kingman

Charles Herndon, well known attorney of Kingman, has come down to Prescott to spend the holidays.

Here for Holidays

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Metz, former residents of Prescott, are at the St. Michael for the holidays. They now live at Kingman.

Home for Holidays

James Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith, will arrive today from Stanford University, to pass Christmas at home.

From the Farms

Prof. L. N. George, principal of the Prescott Farms school, spent the afternoon in town yesterday on business, returning to his home yesterday evening.

Goes to Phoenix

Miss Thelma Roberts today will leave for Phoenix to spend Christmas with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George Tumber.

From Humboldt

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nickerson drove to the city yesterday and passed the afternoon in town